THE BOWLBY CENTRE

Who are we?

The Bowlby Centre provides a 4 year part time psychotherapy taught course which is accredited by the United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy. Our influences include classical psychoanalytic thinkers from Freud to Winnicott and challenges to traditional approaches from authors such as Jessica Benjamin, John Bowlby, Ronald Fairbairn and Stephen Mitchell.

We also offer a referral service, short courses on cutting edge clinical issues, and the annual John Bowlby Memorial Conference.
The Bowlby Centre is a Company Limited By Guarantee No. 3272512. Registered Charity No. 1064780/0

Promoting Attachment and Inclusion
Attachment Theory in Clinical Practice

Seminars will include the following themes

• Introductions – our relationship to attachment theory.
• Attachment theory in context
• Separation, loss and mourning
• Patterns of attachment and their internal representation
• Secure • Dismissing • Preoccupied • Unresolved/disorganised • Not classifiable
• Evaluating adult attachment states of mind
• Internal working models
• Reflective functioning
• Intersubjectivity

Clinical work will consider the role of mourning, narrative, mutuality and recognition, affective attunement and cycles of rupture and repair in the therapeutic process.

"I was surprised how this course touched on all areas of my life... for me it has been the missing piece of the jigsaw I have been looking for and brings together many things..."

Orit Badouk Epstein is an Attachment based Psychoanalytic psychotherapist (UKCP registered) and a supervisor working in private practice. She works relationally with individuals, couples and parents. Orit has a particular interest and passion for working with individuals who have experienced extreme abuse and trauma displaying symptoms of dissociation. Orit is a trustee for the Clinic of Dissociative Studies. She is co- author of the book "Ritual Abuse and Mind Control: the Manipulation of Attachment Needs" (Karnac Books) and co-editor of the recently published book 'Terror within & without'. She is the associate editor for Journal Attachment New Direction and on the editorial board of the ESTD (European Society for Trauma and Dissociation) where she regularly writes articles and film and book reviews. Orit regularly teaches the Attachment Theory in Clinical Practice short course.

VALUING DIVERSITY
